The Honorable J. Edward Day
President
National Civil Service League
1346 Connecticut Avenue, N. W.
Washington, D. C. 20036

Dear Mr. Day:

This is to advise that Dr. R. Jack Smith, our candidate for the 1966 Career Service Award, has recently been appointed Deputy Director for Intelligence in the Central Intelligence Agency.

As Deputy Director for Intelligence, Dr. Smith supervises all the overt intelligence collection and production functions of the Agency and is a regular participant in the affairs of the United States Intelligence Board. This is a role of great significance and grave responsibility in the United States intelligence community and is of greatest importance to our national security.

We would appreciate your advising the Career Service Award Judges of Dr. Smith's new appointment.

Sincerely,

/s/ Richard Helms
